Third Reading of Bill 124, An Act to amend the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006.

Troisième lecture du projet de loi 124, Loi modifiant la Loi de 2006 sur la location à usage d'habitation.

Debate arose and after some time,

Il s'éleva un débat et après quelque temps,

Pursuant to the Order of the House dated May 3, 2017,

Conformément à l'ordre de l'Assemblée du 3 mai 2017,

The question was then put.

La question a ensuite été mise aux voix.

Vote deferred.

Le vote est différé.

At 10:03 a.m., the President of the Treasury Board indicated that no further morning business would be called and therefore the House recessed.

À 10 h 03, la Présidente du Conseil du Trésor a indiqué que l'ordre du jour de la séance du matin étant épuisé, la Chambre suspendait ses travaux.

The Speaker addressed the House:-

Le Président s'adresse à la Chambre :-

I beg to inform the House that, pursuant to Standing Order 71(b), the Member for Nipissing has notified the Clerk of his intention to file notice of a reasoned amendment to the motion for Second Reading of Bill 134, An Act to implement 2017 Budget measures (Sessional Paper No. 227).

The Order for Second Reading of Bill 134 may therefore not be called today.

The Speaker delivered the following ruling:-

Le Président a rendu la décision suivante :-

On Monday, May 15, 2017, the Member for Leeds–Grenville (Mr. Clark) raised a question of privilege concerning advertising on electricity pricing. According to the Member, a number of items which were issued or authorized by the government allude to future price cuts and other changes in the electricity sector. The Member alleges that they constitute a prima facie case of contempt by the Minister of Energy because they presume a timeline and outcome of a bill currently before the House. The Government House Leader (Mr. Naqvi) also spoke to the matter and both Members filed written submissions.

Having had the opportunity to review the written notice of the Member for Leeds–Grenville, the oral arguments and written submissions of the Member for Leeds–Grenville and the Government House Leader, and other relevant precedents and authorities, I am now prepared to rule on the matter.

This matter is directly related to my earlier ruling on March 23, 2017. In that instance, the Member for Simcoe–Grey had raised a substantially similar question of privilege, and based upon apparently the same materials as are in question in the current instance.

Those materials are:

1. An undated screenshot of a Facebook advertisement from Ontario Energy;
2. A screenshot of a re-tweet of a similar ad to the one from Facebook, showing the date March 2;

3. A screenshot of a re-tweet of a graphic containing the Hydro One name and Logo, showing the date March 2;
4. An Ontario Liberal Party publication, of unknown provenance, referring to the “Fair Hydro Plan”; and
5. Two audio advertisements about the “Fair Hydro Plan” sponsored by the Government of Ontario.

In my earlier ruling, I was not able to find that a prima facie case of contempt had been made out largely due to the fact, and I paraphrase, that to do so would have required me to have been capable of conducting, or to have some sort of jurisdiction to conduct, a legal analysis of the legislative framework that would have been necessary to produce the results alluded to in the ads and other items. Speakers do not undertake legal analysis, make legal findings or attempt to interpret the law.

That is as true in the present case as it was in March. So, the question of whether or not the specific piece of legislation currently before the House, Bill 132, is the sole available mechanism for the Government of Ontario to implement its “Fair Hydro Plan” is not one I can study or answer. Were there, or are there, other viable means to give effect to electricity rate reductions? I cannot know.

However, now that a bill is before the House which has provided the genesis of the complaint from the Member for Leeds–Grenville, I can examine if any of the items do what the ads did in the seminal case on government advertising that was referred to by the Member, that being the 1997 ruling by Speaker Stockwell.

Let me remind the House of what Speaker Stockwell had to say. In addressing definitively worded statements in government ads about municipal reform in Toronto, he stated:

“How is one to interpret such unqualified claims? In my opinion, they convey the impression that the passage of the requisite legislation was not necessary or was a foregone conclusion, or that the Assembly and the Legislature had a pro forma, tangential, even inferior role in the legislative and law-making process, and in doing so, they appear to diminish the respect that is due to the House. I would not have come to this view had these claims or proposals – and that is all that they are – been qualified by a statement that they would only become law if and when the Legislature gave its stamp of approval to them.”

Let me begin by examining the 5 items provided to me by the Member for Leeds–Grenville that I mentioned before. The Ontario Liberal Party ad and the Hydro One ad are not the responsibility of the Government of Ontario or the Minister of Energy, so I accord them no value for the purpose of this consideration.

As for the Facebook and Twitter ads, which are substantially the same, I can report that they each prominently feature both a web address and a separate link to the “Fair Hydro Plan” website. Right on the landing page of this site, is the following language:

“Ontario has introduced legislation that would, if passed, reduce electricity bills...etc.”; and

“In addition, if the proposed legislation is passed, your bill...etc.”

In short, the language on this website is conditional throughout with respect to the “Fair Hydro Plan”.

Likewise, the audio ads that the Member for Leeds–Grenville provided, which are archived from links on the Toronto Star website, direct listeners to the same “Fair Hydro Plan” website as the Facebook and Twitter ads I just mentioned. I take note of the fact that the Member for Leeds–Grenville advises these audio ads were aired sometime during the March break two months ago.

The ads make bold statements, as I noted in my March 23 ruling, but they also have to be taken as a whole – the prominent links and references to the “Fair Hydro Plan” website are just as much a part of the ad as the other statements in them. The advertising and messaging on Bill 132 that has been drawn to my attention, including that provided by the Government House Leader, contains language that, in my opinion, is suitably deferential to the requisite and superior role of this House in first passing the legislation necessary to enact the Plan.

Finally, the 1997 Stockwell ruling precedent that has rightly become so influential in the area of government advertising was made in a context where legislation was then currently before the House, though the then-government advertised about its application in a way that conveyed the impression that it was a done deal. I have not had similar advertising specific to Bill 132 brought to my attention.

For the various reasons just mentioned, I cannot find that a prima facie case of contempt has been established in this matter. In closing I will say that the fact that the advertising and other messaging around Bill 132 is conditional in nature and explicitly recognizes the need for the Bill to first pass in the Legislative Assembly is, in my view, both a vindication of the direction established by Speaker Stockwell 20 years ago, and a full answer to the grievances of the Members for Simcoe–Grey and Leeds–Grenville in the current instance.

I thank the Member for Leeds–Grenville and the Government House Leader for their contributions to this matter.
